Lincolu has yielded to this pressure. He has promised a proclamation declaring just the policy they want; but, as we said, this the theory, now they want the men to carry it out. The Independent discourses thus: "We have no doubt whatever that Mr. Lincoln means well, and tasks himself to do well for the country. But he is an overernment in its great exigency. Captain Pond surrounded the town with his command, placing a picket guard at the bridge across Beargrass creek, in the edge of the town, and ascertained that there was secreted in the town a rebel soldier. He answered that his friends came to congratulate him, because he had re-ceived the nomination as candidate for Governor of New York, from a convention composed of the truest friends of the Govrnment and country, and the most earnest supporters of the war. He said he had not earued this compliment by any public service, for he held no official position in his native State, but he claimed in their choice a significance and plainly remarked that he had been presented for the suffrage of the people, by men who believed that the rebellion can ought to be crushed, and who intend to hold the country together at whatever cost of blood, suffering and treasure.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29. The special correspondent of Forney's Press, writing from l'ensacola on the 19th, gives the following items:

The steam frigate Susquehanna has been condemned and will proceed home the first opportunity. The Iroquois has her ma-chinery injured and goes home soon. The The Winona made her way through an intricate passage, and got into a position to enable her to fire over the canal with effect at tho enemy's gun boats, one of which she hit with three 11-inch shells, which rendered the rebel boat unmanageable and prevented her from stoaming up the harbor. Fort Morgan opened a heavy fire upon the Wiuona, and compelled her to beat a hasty retreat. She received no injury from the shots of the fort, which struck around her and passed over her to a distance of half a mile, showing that her distance could not be less than three miles and a half. Such brilliant reconnoissances, frequently performed, would batter to pieces the enemy's fleet, and render it a more easy undertaking for Faragut's fleet, when operatious rre begun against Mobile.

Maj. Gen. William Nelson Killed. Our city was startled about 8 o'clock vesterday morning by the report that a difficulty had occurred at the Galt House, between Mai, Gen. Wm. Nelson and Brig. Gen. Jefferson C. Davis, in which Gen. Nelson received a death wound. There seems to be but one statement in regard to the cause of the unfortunate difficulty, which dates back to last week, when Gcn. Nelson placed Gen. Davis in command of the Home Guard forces in our city. It runs as follows: At the close of the day, when Gen. Davis reported to Gen. Nelson the number of men rolled for service, he (Davis) was denounced and cursed for not having more. Davis replied that he had done his duty, when Nelson, in a gruff manner, ordered him to report to Cincinnati, and threatened that he would have the I'rovost Guard eject him from the city. Davis replied that he was a last week. general officer and should be treated as a gentleman.

Yesterday morning, at the Galt llouse, as Gov. Morton and Gen. Nelson were standing near the office desk (both gentlemen gave, we believe, great satisfaction amongst having just left the breakfast table), Gen. Davis approached and asked Gov. Morton to wilness the conversation between himrude treatment he had received last week. General Nelson, being a little deaf, asked him to speak londerstating that he was hard of hearing. Davis again demanded an explanation and aplogy. Nelson denounced him, and slapped him on the head. Davis stepped back, and seemed to cleuch his fist, and turned and again addressed Gen. Nelson, when Nelson slapped him in the face, and denounced him as a coward. Gen. Davis turned away, remarking to Gen. Nelson that "this is not the last of it. He crossed the large hall at the Galt House, and meeting Capt. T. W. Gibson, asked him if he had a weapon. Gibson handed Davis the pistol without making they will spoil. If they can't find someany inquiry as to the use he wished to make of it. Gen. Davis then crossed back to the point he left, and met Gen. Nelson as he came out of the ladies' parlor to go be too many opportunities for disorder in a up stairs. Gen. Davis told him to defend himself, and almost immediately fired, the ball penetrating Gen. Nelsou's left breast, cutting the main artery above the heart. After being shot, Nelson turned and walk- be Pilbitt Chinton, was found dead on Han-He was taken into an adjoining room, and streets. He belonged to some artillery youd the aid of medicat skill.

He was a noble specimen of the human race-brave, reckless and impulsive-ever willing to sell his life to the enemy. It is a source of sorrow that he should have fallen by the hand of a brother officer, but he would not brook from another the rude insult he had offered Gen. Davis, and could expect no gallant gentleman to take it from himself.

There is a right way and a wrong way to do a thing. In this unfortunate case, both men have been in fault. The country needed the services of each. They were both brave and gallant leaders. Their gives the enemy food to gloat over for at dead. least a month to come.

Interesting Foreign News.

[Special to the N. Y. Herald] CENTERVILLE, Sept. 25.

The few inhabitants left are nearly in a state of starvation, everything taken from them, including nearly all the live stock. Broken and burned U.S. baggage wagons were strewn along the roads in the line of their retreat while careasses of dead horses and mules were discovered every few rods. St. Louis, Sept. 29.

Three hundred and sixty-three disloyal citizens of Carroll county, Missouri, have recently been assessed $11,000, by the Board of Commissioners appointed under General order No. 3, for killing and wounding loyal soldiers and citizens, and for taking property belonging to said persons. The sums levied range from $2 to $1,000 on each person assessed. If the amount is not paid within ten days after notice, their property will be seized and sold. Gen. Curtiss and staff paid a visit this force, with Col. Bradford, were taken morning to the fortifications, surrounding the city, and expressed himself highly pleased with their appearance, and the manner in which the military arrangements are conducted at them. The appearance of the General and his formldable staff on the street collected quite a crowd of citizens. The Thirty-third Regiment of Iowa volunteers arrived this morning, and marched out to the Benton Barrocks, making an imposing appearance, and receiving many warm encomisms from the people.

Hunson, Mo., Sept. 29. Major Anderson, commanding a detachment of the Touth Missouri Militia, recently had a skirmish with guerrillas, in Mon-roe county, routing two companies of them, and capturing the notorious guerrilla chief Elliot Monroe, and 13 of his party, together with some horses, arms and camp equipage. J. W. Menniffee, lately of Poindexter's band, was captured on the 21st, having entered the cars in disguise, and being recognized by persons present. Gen. Merrill is informed, by authority which he deems credible, that l'orter, himself, crossed the river on the night of the 21st, from the lower part of Calloway Previous information indicated that he had gone in that direction, and had some force with him, but how much, is not known as the No. 290, off that port, having had to put back. This report is thought to be incorrect, the Alabama alluded to probably being an irregular Mediterranean trader. The London Daily News editorially taunts the friends of secession with being jubilant over the triumphs of the slave power, and asks who is to be better on for it.

Southampton on 19th, and arrived at Queenstown on the 20th. Political news by the Europa is unimpor. tant. Grent Britain.—A telegraphic dispatch

also says that should the hopes of the English friends of secession be realand twenty millions, free men of Grockers-Sales of 3 hhds Sugar at 11@11; c; 20 bags six millions in the South exercise the right of trade on the African coast. We shall find they will be so disposed as to differ from other nations about African slave trade as they have been to accept the doctrine of New England, that slave trade between the States which is a right. Jeff. Davis has expressly reserved for the South. His admirers in England may find that they have not yet done him all the service he requires.

The London Times earnestly denounces the policy of the Abolitionists of the North in seeking to raise the negroes of the South against their masters. It says the Abolitionists are endeavoring to conspire against legitimate warfare, but thinks they vill not be successful in attempting. It adds: Indeed, it is difficult to see how a proclamation, by an absent or fugitive president, can have any greater effect than the documents issued by such Generals as Hun-ter and Phelps; inciting negroes to re-volt. It trusts that Prezident Lincoln will refrain from an act which will be at once a crime and a blunder, which will in no way advance the Federal cause, but only deepen and make eternal hatred between the two sections. The New York correspondent London Times is of the opinion that Enrope need not fear that the North will unite to to repel foreign interevention. It's courage is gone, and the game is lost. Washing-ton knows it, if New York does not, that the Abolitionists are destroying the Union by their frantic efforts to save it. ND1.—

The Rebels at Augusta-The Enemy Completely Routed. The following is the account in full in the Cincinnati Gazette, of the attack on

Augusta, Kentucky:

This place was attacked by a force of mounted rebels, six hundred and forty strong, with two cannon, under command of a younger brother of Col. John Morgan, at three o'clock this afternoon. Their first attack was made by a portion of them on the steamboats Belfast and Florence Miller, with the intention of eapturing them, but although the boats were completely riddled with musket and rifle shots, they made their escape without any person being hurt. In the meantime the rest of the force became engaged with the Union force under Col. Bradford, numbering 120 men, the most of whom took refuge in the houses, and fired from the windows with deadly effect on the ebels, killing and wounding ninety men Amongst the killed are three Captains, one of them a younger brother of Morgan. Amongst the mortally wounded is the Lieutenant Colonelin command, a son of G, D. tice, of the Louisville Journal. This heavy oss exasperated the rebels so much that they set fire to every house they were fired

DISCOVERY OF A REBEL AGENT AT WASHingron.—I will give the last bit of gossip, although it has a spice of seandal in it. For a long time it has been known that the rebcls have had some means by which they gained the earliest and most reliable infor-mation that could come only from some official sources. For instance the removal of General Hunter was alluded to in Jeff. Dais message long before the fact was known to our people. Many parties have been suspected and watched, but no one was de tected. Last week, it is now said, Gen. Ilalleck ran the thread of suspicion and his proof up to the hand that held it. It proved to be a woman, the wife of a loyal man who has been quite conspicuous in this war. The proof is said to be overwhelming and unquestioned. The party is one long suspected, and Gen. Halleck demanded that the party should at once be carried from the city Such is the rumor from the lips of those who are usually well informed, and who have no doubt of facts. The name of the suspected party I do not think proper to from Holyhead on the evening of the 19th, reports the serew sleamer Alabama, better give. - Washington Correspondent
